יוטעו - ד איניי

FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT

Reds Expel American Tourist, Accusing Him of Being a Spy___

MOSCOW, Aug. 11 (UPI) | Job Here Described The Soviet Union today of

Christner, of Sparks, Nev. ob was to gather materials said the charges were un founded and that he was set (Christner, who is unmany) founded and that he was s "mad and disgusted I don" know what to do . . . I'm flab bergasted.'

He said he had asked his Soviet guides for permission to take certain photograph and that they replied, "Please do." Security Agency in Germany. do." These were the same pictures the Soviet govern ment asserted proved his es pionage activities, Christne said.

its cultural counsellor, Lee Brady, was called to the For eign Ministry, told of Christner's expulsion and warned that the United States must cease using tourists for e pionage purposes.

Part of Red Campaign

(The State Department de scribed the expulsion Christner as another part of 'a current campaign to it flame public opinion" prior t the opening on Aug. 17 of th espionage trial of America U-2 pilot Francis Gary Pow

Christner learned Russian at the U.S. Army foreign language school-Monterrey, Calif., and worke temporarily as a researche in the library of Congress. The Soviet Union charge that "during his trips in Ru sia, he drew topographic maps of various areas mar ing on them railways, bridges end radio areas" and that h kept his intelligence note and film in a specially d signed belt which he wor under his clothing."

In Washington, the Lidered Robert Christner, a 27 brary of Congress said Christ-year-old American tourist, expelled for alleged spy activities. (In washington, the Library of Congress said Christ-ner worked there from April 8 to June 30 as a temporary employe in its Slavic and Central European Division. His > ('hristner, who is unmarried, graduated from the University of Nevada in 1955. where he studied haitory and politics. He then enlisted in the Army and after studying Russian was assigned to the

[After his discharge from he Army Christner continued his Russian studies at the University of California at The American Embassy said Berkeley. Before moving to scultural counsellor, Lee Washington, he told the Library, he worked for the Southern Pacific Railroad in Sparks.]

Sanitized - Approved For Release: CIA-RDP75-00149R000100780011-7